Rosa Parks
African American Studies House

- Brings together undergraduates who share an interest in the study of African American history and culture.
- Students and advisors plan activities that coordinate with formal study in these areas. Activities involve student/faculty interaction and guests who are leaders in the African American community.
- Residents are encouraged to enroll in one of the core Introduction to African American Studies courses (AfAm 40A, 40B and 40C) prior to moving into or while residing in the house.
- Priority will be given to those students who are pursuing a major or minor in African American Studies.
