The International House is a living-learning opportunity for students who want to increase their knowledge and understanding of different cultures, share international perspectives, and build friendships with students from around the world.

- Offers a wide variety of cross-cultural activities and learning experiences, including special dinners, culture nights, holiday festivities, study abroad interest sessions and intramural sports
- Half of the residents in the International House are exchange students at UCI and half are degree seeking UCI students from around the world
- Residents are expected to be actively involved in the community and participate in programs and activities.
